The aim of this document is to inform you on how we process your personal data - cookies - when you use our website www.czpvi.cz.

What are cookies?

Cookies are small text files that a website sends to your browser. Cookies allow a website to record and retain your preferences and settings (such as your chosen language, font size and other settings). This way, you do not have to set these preferences again the next time you visit the website and you will find browsing easier and more enjoyable. In general, cookies enable you to make better use of the website and adapt its content to your needs and increase the user-friendliness of your return visit to the website.

What are different types of cookies?

Session (i.e. temporary) cookies allow us to link your individual activities while you are browsing this website. These cookies are activated when you open your browser window and deactivated when you close your browser window. Session cookies are temporary, and all the data is deleted when you close your browser.

Persistent cookies help us to identify your computer when you revisit our website. Another advantage of persistent cookies is that they allow us to customize our website to your needs.

You can manually delete, block or completely disable individual cookies within your browser settings. For more information, please use your browser help.
